Cease-Fire Quiets Bloody Gaza Strip

Ends Nine Days Of Fighting In Which
61 Persons Were Slain

JERUSALEM, Sept. 2 (AP)—The bloody Gaza strip was quiet today. Both Israel and Egypt observed a U.N.-proposed cease-fire in the tense border area.

An Israeli Foreign Ministry spokesman said tonight there had been no incidents since shortly before last midnight when Egyptian infiltrators blew up a well at Yad Mordechai, an Israeli settlement northeast of the Egyptian-held strip.

The calm followed nine days of fighting in which the estimated casualties reached as high as 61 killed and 91 wounded. It came after Israel announced acceptance of a cease-fire proposed by Canadian Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, chief of the U.N. truce supervisory commission.

Abide By Armistice

The Israeli announcement said its troops would abide by the armistice call provided "All attacks by Egyptians in whatever form will cease."

A spokesman for Egypt's Palestine Department said in Cairo that Egyptian forces have been ordered to observe the cease-fire. Noting that Egypt accepted Burns' proposal on Tuesday, he said Cairo had not sent any further message in response to the Israeli acceptance. He added that he did not know whether further word would be necessary.

The Jerusalem government had asked Burns for "guarantees and assurances on the part of Egypt concerning aggressive acts committed by her forces."

The Egyptian spokesman disclosed that Burns arrived in the Gaza strip today for a first-hand investigation of the Israeli attack on Khan Yunis. Israeli troops in half tracks blew up an Egyptian military headquarters in that rail center Wednesday night.

Clashes Occured

Despite Burns' appeals, strongly backed by Britain and the United States, clashes or raids across the border have occurred almost daily since then.

An Israeli Foreign Ministry spokesman told newsmen that official circles here observed "with interest" that Egyptian representatives turned up for yesterday's meeting of the U.N. Mixed Armistice Commission, held in a hut along the border.

The meeting was adjourned until next Monday "due to the fact that some of the U.N. military observers were absent on duty," a joint communique said.

Lizards On Display

NEW YORK, Sept. 2 (AP)—A lizard that flew into naturalist William Beebe's Singapore room is on exhibition in the Bronx Zoo along with half a dozen other flying lizards. The tiny animals, six to eight inches long, are an uncommon sight in captivity.

Pleads Innocent

BALTIMORE, Sept. 2 (AP)—Francis Anthony Sope, 33-year-old storm window salesman, pleaded innocent today to charges he held up a branch bank in a $2,350 robbery on August 4, 1954.

French Cafe Terraces Are Reduced For Parking Space

PARIS, Sept. 2 (AP)—Sidewalk cafe sitters on the Champs Elysees have lost a round in their perennial battle with drivers who park their cars on the boulevard's wide sidewalks.

A new Seine Department ruling limits the depth of the table space to five meters—16.5 feet. The aim is to make more room for parking. "So that Parisians can drive their cars, it is necessary to con-

Much Progress Noted In Ending Race Prejudice

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2 (AP)—Atty. Gen. Brownell said tonight more progress has been made toward ending racial discrimination in the last few years than in any similar period since 1865, when slavery was abolished by constitutional amendment.

"The greatest single step forward is the decision of the Supreme Court holding that segregation in public schools is contrary to the principles laid down in the 14th Amendment," Brownell told the National Bar Assn., an organization of Negro lawyers.

Despite "some rumblings of dissatisfaction from some quarters," the attorney general said, "the mere announcement of this principle by the Supreme Court has cleared the air, and schools all over the country are being made to accept the goal in the near future."

Some communities in the South, Brownell reported, "have already voluntarily gone ahead and removed the barriers of discrimination in their schools."

He cited Hoxie, Ark., as an area "where it was expected that considerable opposition might be experienced."

Resume Sea Trade

C47 Crashes In Alaska, 12 Aboard Killed

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Sept. 2 (AP)—An Air Force C47 crashed on a flight to Nome last night and 12 aboard were believed to have been killed.

The Air Force reported the twin-engine plane crashed with a crew of five and seven passengers in an isolated area about 65 miles north of Anchorage. The plane had taken off from Elmendorf Air Base here on the 500-mile flight to Nome.

The passengers were reported to have been Air Force personnel. The crash scene was about a mile from the outlying Skwentna airstrip.

Reports to the Air Force here were that the plane developed engine trouble after passing over Skwentna at 11,000 feet.

The Air Force said two rescue planes tried to reach the scene last night but were turned back when weather conditions prevented a landing at Skwentna.

Other planes left today with rescue personnel.

Bohlen To See USSR A-Plant

MOSCOW, Sept. 2 (AP)—The Soviet Union today invited U. S. Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen to visit its top-secret atomic power station. The bid, delivered by the Russian Foreign Ministry, asked Bohlen to meet his Soviet hosts in central Moscow at 8:45 a.m. Tuesday for the drive to the plant. The station is located 3½ hours out of town.

Bohlen said he believed similar invitations have been extended to all heads of diplomatic missions in Moscow. The offer to show Western diplomats such a plant is unprecedented. Indian Prime Minister Nehru visited the plant on his recent Soviet tour but otherwise it has been off limits to all but a certain few for whom exception has been made.

The invitation did not say where the station is located nor did it include a map. There also was no word about bringing cameras. "I only wish I knew something about atomic energy," said Bohlen. The Soviets claim the 5,000 kilowatt station, which opened in July, 1954, was the world's first to produce commercial electricity from atomic energy.

Receive Grants

NEW YORK, Sept. 2 (AP)—The automotive crash injury research program of Cornell University's medical college has received grants of $200,000 each from the Chrysler Corp. and Ford Motor Co.

Open Campaign

OTTAWA, Sept. 2 (AP)—Police have opened a campaign against litterbugs under a bylaw providing maximum $50 fines for leaving refuse in the streets.

UAW Layoff Plan Goes To "Little Three"

DETROIT, Sept. 2 (AP)—The CIO United Auto Workers extended their layoff plan to the first of the automobile industry's "Little Three" today. But the union gave American Motors Corp. an extra year to put it into effect.

The "Big Three"—Chrysler Corp., which accepted the plan only yesterday; General Motors Corp. and Ford Motor Co.—agreed to start building multimillion-dollar trust funds at contract signing to finance layoff pay.

American Motors doesn't have to start its trust fund building until Sept. 15, 1956, and benefits from it will not become available until a year after that. Workers for the "Big Three" become eligible next June 1 for pay during layoffs.

As in the three agreements before it, the American Motors-UAW pact followed quickly on the heels of a general walkout. No strike lasted more than a few hours.

American Motors builds Nash and Hudson automobiles and its Kelvinator division makes home appliances. It has seven plants in Michigan, Wisconsin and California and its full work force numbers 24,000.

The AMC contract, like the others, runs for three years. Studebaker-Packard Corp., whose 9,000 Studebaker workers in Indiana are on strike, and Kaiser Motors Corp., with American Motors, make up the so-called "Little Three." Together they have built only five per cent of this year's record auto output.

UAW workers in Studebaker's South Bend plants refused to extend their contract and walked out yesterday in the first official strike against the company since its wage-on-making days in the 1890s. Unionists voted against day-to-day extension recommended by their leaders.

Workers at both Studebaker and Kaiser agreed last year to downward contract adjustments to make their firms, as they put it, "competitive" with the remainder of the industry. The Packard division contract with the UAW doesn't expire until Sept. 30. The contracts of both divisions were written, as were others in the industry, five years ago. Since, the two old-line auto producers have merged into a single firm.

Two Young WACs Are Still Missing

EDGEWOOD, Sept. 2 (AP)—Two young WACs listed as absent without leave since Wednesday were reported still missing tonight from their detachment at the Army Chemical Center. State police had said in an earlier alert Pvt. Doris C. Ferguson, 18, and Pvt. Mabel Miller, 19, might have met with foul play, but since then they were said to have visited Miss Ferguson's parents in Columbus, Ohio. Miss Ferguson's mother said the girls had stopped off for about two hours, then left, saying they intended to go to a movie. The mother said she believed they were on their way back to Edgewood today. An Army spokesman said the girls had not returned and still were listed as a.w.o.l.

Ike Arranges Top Secret National Security Talks

Nixon, Radford To Confer Next Week With President At Denver

DENVER, Sept. 2 (AP)—President Eisenhower today arranged top secret national security conferences here next week with Vice President Nixon and Adm. Arthur W. Radford.

Nixon will fly from Washington to the Summer White House Monday, Labor Day.

U.S., Britain Differ Over Arms Control

LONDON, Sept. 2 (AP)—Differences have developed between the United States and Britain over the timing and locale of a proposed experiment in East-West arms control in Europe, informed diplomats said tonight.

Prime Minister Eden proposed the scheme at the Geneva Conference of the Big Four in July. It would provide the limitation of Russian and Western arms and armies in a defined area of Europe and for joint inspection to prevent cheating.

The British have given details of this project to the Americans in confidential exchanges in Washington. They have suggested it should be launched as soon as possible—if the Russians agree to a suitable inspection system. They have proposed that the area should be mainly in Germany and extending about 100 miles along the line of the East and West German frontier, according to the informants.

But the Americans were said to feel that application of such a scheme might lessen the pressure on the Russians to play a part in uniting East and West Germany.

The other American objective reportedly is that if the arms limitation plan were tried out in Germany it might seem to confirm the present division of that country.

The informants said one compromise idea is under study. It is to apply the arms limitation and inspection experiment to another part of Europe where forces of East and West face each other—maybe along the Norwegian-Soviet frontier or between Czechoslovakia and Southwest Germany.

The Eden project is one of several before the five-power subcommittee of the United Nations Disarmament Commission in New York.

The whole problem very likely came up for discussion today between Foreign Secretary Harold Macmillan and Livingston Merchant, assistant secretary of state in charge of European affairs.

French Gen. Visits Town

OUED ZEM, French Morocco, Sept. 2 (AP)—France's new resident general today inspected scenes of the recent Moroccan uprising and promised survivors of the Oued Zem Massacre that "such an abomination will not be repeated."

Gen. Pierre Boyer de Latour du Moulin was handed a pledge of loyalty from 259 Moroccan leaders in the area, along with an expression of "immense sorrow" for the killings of Aug. 20 and 21.

But French troops and gendarmes still pursued 150 Moroccans in the Oued Zem region who have not surrendered.

Boyer de Latour arrived in Rabat the Moroccan capital, Wednesday to take up the delicate task of implementing a new political settlement being put into final form by French and Moroccan leaders.

After meeting Sultan Mohammed Ben Moulay Arafa yesterday, the general began his tour of the areas attacked during the uprising.

Boyer de Latour is generally believed to have orders to depose the Sultan as the first step toward Moroccan home rule. But the subject was not broached at his first meeting.

Steel Executive Is Accused Of Adultery

BALTIMORE, Sept. 2 (AP)—H. Buckley Dietrich, wealthy Baltimore steel man, exchanged charges with his wife in the divorce courts today and she accused him of adultery.

The next round was set for Saturday, Sept. 10.

Declines To Comment

James C. Hagerty, presidential press secretary, declined to shed any light on the specific reason for the conferences.

He did say, however, that national security matters would be discussed at both meetings—and that the discussions would deal with the same security problems.

Immediately after his conference with the President, Nixon will fly back to Washington to preside Thursday at a White House meeting of the National Security Council, the government's top policy-making unit on security matters.

That session, too, Hagerty said, will deal with the same security affairs bringing Nixon and Radford to Denver. Radford will leave Washington after the NSC meeting for his Friday conference with Eisenhower here.

The President is chairman of the Security Council, but Nixon has been presiding during the chief executive's Colorado vacation. Nixon will be accompanied to Denver by Dillon Anderson, presidential aide on national security affairs, and Theodore Streibert, chief of the U. S. Information Agency.

Talks Are Scheduled

Streibert will confer with Eisenhower after the session with Nixon and Anderson. Hagerty gave out no information on the nature of Streibert's business, either.

Eisenhower's scheduled Labor Day meeting with the vice president means the holiday weekend will be devoted partly to official business and partly to golf and bridge.

On the social and relaxation side, a group of cronies with whom Eisenhower frequently golfs and plays bridge at Augusta, Ga., arrived here last night for the weekend as guests of the President and Mrs. Eisenhower. Several wives are along.

The group visited Denver's Cherry Hills Country Club for golf this morning after Eisenhower had worked briefly at his Lowry Air Force Base office.

The President and Mrs. Eisenhower spent last evening with their guests at the presidential suite of the Brown Palace Hotel here. The chief executive and the First Lady then stayed overnight at the suite instead of returning to the home of her mother, Mrs. John S. Dowd.

Missing Girl Is "Runaway"

NEW YORK, Sept. 2 (AP)—A search was called off today for a 14-year-old Staten Island girl who reportedly screamed "Help me!" to her mother over the telephone last night before the line went dead.

The girl apparently ran away from home, police said.

The search by 40 police and Civil Defense members centered in a wooded area of lower Staten Island. It was discontinued after several persons told police a girl answering the description of the missing Rita Mae Hann had boarded a bus for the Manhattan ferry.

A girl friend told police that Rita Mae had confided in her she wanted to "run away to Virginia" before the opening of school.

The hunt began after the girl's mother, Mrs. Lillian Hann, notified police of the mysterious telephone call. Mrs. Hann said she was positive that the voice screaming for help was that of her daughter.

The girl's father, Alfred, is an insurance adjuster. The family has been living in the Charleston section of the island for 15 months.

Nabbed By Police Despite Precaution

JONES BEACH, N.Y., Sept. 2 (AP)—Police said two brothers nabbed as petty larceny suspects used binoculars to scan the crowds for any approaching policemen.

But the brothers apparently did not recognize the three officers who claim to have caught them taking a portable radio from an unguarded beach blanket.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, is shown in a photograph. He is wearing a suit and tie, and is looking towards the camera.

Two Men Are Fatally Burned In Brush Fire

LA HABRA, Calif., Sept. 2 (AP)—At least two fire fighters were fatally burned today when trapped while fighting a brush fire in the Puente hills.

At least 12 fire fighters were taken to hospitals in the area and 10 ambulances were sent to the scene.

At a hospital in nearby Covina it was reported two men were dead on arrival and burned almost beyond recognition. Another fireman, injured, was admitted there. A hospital official said the ambulance driver who brought in the bodies reported there were three more bodies at the scene of the fire, but this was not immediately confirmed.

One of the dead was identified as county fire Capt. Glenn Elden Rocky, 45, of Baldwin Park. The other victim was not immediately identified.

Four other burned firefighters were received at an emergency hospital in nearby Pico.

Murphy Memorial Hospital in Whittier said seven burned firefighters were being treated. An official said "one or two" were pretty badly burned and "three or four" were getting blood plasma. He said the hospital understood five more injured men were being brought in.

The men were trapped as a wild brush fire seared 15 acres in the first 15 minutes it burned in this area about 25 miles east of Los Angeles.

The area is about 15 miles south of San Dimas, where a fire yesterday destroyed 12 homes and damaged others.

Police Thwart Escape Attempt

UPPER MERIDEN, Md., Sept. 2 (AP)—An attempted break which could have freed 20 prisoners from the Prince Georges County jail has been thwarted, Sheriff J. Lee Ball said today.

Ball said he heard a "suspicious tapping" on a routine inspection yesterday and found a nearly completed hole large enough for a man to crawl through in the wall of a cell block washroom. He said only one layer of brick separated the men from the open.

Ex-WAC Is Only Woman Entered In Soldiers' Home

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2 (AP)—The U. S. Soldiers' Home, for more than 100 years a sanctuary for old or disabled veterans, today received its first woman ex-soldier.

She is Miss Regina C. Jones, 47, who has been almost blinded by cataracts that developed while she was a WAC Pfc during World War II, and who is tired of "floundering around—living in boarding houses."

"I don't want to be a burden to anyone," she said. "I hope they will find something for me to do around here."

Asked how she felt about taking up residence in a home with 1,800 men, Miss Jones said "the men won't bother me. I make friends with everybody."

If approved for permanent residence after undergoing the regular hospital and other checkups, Miss Jones will be installed in Anderson Cottage, which is being remodelled in anticipation that other WACs will follow.

The first of her sex was greeted at the gate by veterans of the Spanish-American War and the two world wars. Miss Jones, who is six feet tall, came up the walk slowly, proudly erect and peering

Charge Demos Are Wrecking Ike's Policy

Calls For Speakers
To Cite Record Of Party In Campaign

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2 (AP)—The Senate Republican Policy Committee today charged Democrats were "wrecking" President Eisenhower's legislative program. It called on GOP speakers to cite their own party's record in a drive to win control of Congress in 1956.

In a 26-page pattern for suggested campaign speeches by Republican senators, the committee said Democrats in Congress had backed Eisenhower's foreign policies "because they simply did not dare do otherwise." But on domestic issues, it said Democrats "wasted no time in organizing a wrecking crew."

It said they left no device untried in their efforts to undercut the President's domestic program and embarrass him personally.

Lashes At Truman

The GOP document, mailed under the frank of Chairman Bridges of New Hampshire, lashed out at Democratic former President Harry S. Truman.

It charged: 1, that "bribery was common" in Truman's administration, 2, that he "refused to admit that Communists and fellow-travelers were in government" because of fear of "political reprisal," 3, that his party's farm policies are "suicidal," and 4, that a Democratic victory next year would mean "resumption of the leftward, downward way which the New Deal still yearns to follow."

Truman will have an opportunity to discuss these charges, if he cares to, in a Labor Day political speech he is scheduled to make in Detroit. This may be his last political appearance until October. He canceled speeches at two Jefferson-Jackson dinners in California this month. He explained that he wished to conserve energy for his later campaign efforts.

The Democratic National Committee today picked Gov. George Leader of Pennsylvania as a substitute speaker for the dinners in San Francisco Sept. 14 and in Los Angeles Sept. 15.

Leader, 37-year-old first-term governor, generally is regarded as a supporter of Adlai E. Stevenson for renomination in next year's presidential contest.

The Republican Policy Committee's campaign speech outline was issued independently of a White House brochure yesterday dwelling on "administrative achievements" of the Eisenhower administration. The Policy Committee document praised Eisenhower's actions, but dealt primarily with issues before Congress. It was prepared by the committee's staff.

Cite Examples

As specific examples of what it called "Democratic wrecking" activities, the committee said Democrats had "made action impossible" on a highway program.

It accused the Democrats of applying "chloroform" to Eisenhower's proposal for school construction and said the Democrats "buried" his plan for construction of an atomic-powered ship.

In discussing the politically controversial farm program the Republican committee said the Eisenhower administration had been confronted at its beginning with "a Democratic nightmare" of crushing crop surpluses, which it (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2) at her new comrades through thick lenses. She walked with the aid of a cane, because in her failing eyesight she had kept bumping into objects and barking her shins. Finally a blood clot formed and a leg had to be amputated.

Miss Jones claims Mobile, Ala., as her birthplace. "But I was really born on a ship in the Gulf of Mexico," she said. "My mother was trying to get home to Mobile from New York."

Miss Jones volunteered for the WAC in 1943 and was serving as an administrative clerk in Egypt a year later when the cataracts were discovered. She had tried to get a driver's license and found she couldn't read the eye chart.

She said the doctors told her it was the glaring sun. She underwent a series of operations, was mustered out in 1947.

IT ISN'T EASY!

'Most anything worth doing, isn't easy.

A man's job, for example, isn't easy. Often it's complicated and dangerous with problems a-plenty.

It isn't easy, either, to be a homemaker. A dozen skills and more are needed, not to mention endless hours of monotonous tasks.

Yet, man or woman, usually you're urged on by a dogged determination to "do it—or else!"

But when it comes to living a life that's commendable and above reproach, does your determination still prod you on? Do you dare stand for right against all odds?

Then your place is in the Church, where others feel exactly as you do. Join them now in worship and work, and your determination will be strengthened, your faith renewed

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

John A. Luke Assumes Paper Mill Management

Says Prospects At Plant Are Bright

LUKE—John A. Luke, a fourth generation member of the paper-making family which founded West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company, yesterday took over as manager of the company's Luke mill.

67 years ago by his great grandfather, his grandfather and granduncle.

Luke succeeds Albert M. Kaiser, manager of the Luke mill since 1945, who has been assigned to an important new position encompassing broad technical studies related to the company's $100,000,000, five-year program of improvement and expansion.

The new mill manager brings to the Luke job an outstanding record of administrative experience in the pulp and paper industry. He has been assistant manager for business administration at the Charleston, S. C., mill of the company, one of the largest and most modern pulp and paper manufacturing operations in the country.

Headed Economic Research

As second in command at Charleston, Luke has been responsible for overall direction of economic research and business studies which have contributed materially to the sound profit position of the South Carolina mill, along with personnel administration affecting about 1,200 employees, office management and other administrative functions.

In a statement addressed to employees and posted on the mill bulletin boards yesterday, Luke expressed confidence in the future prospects of the Luke mill and called upon all employees to contribute their share to the continuing success of the operations.

The statement follows: "As I take over a new job among you, I'm conscious of our obvious responsibilities to our customers and our community, to each other as employees and to the management and stockholders who employ us.

"I know that this mill and that this community have had some difficult days in the last 40 years. "I know that the softwoods on which this mill was founded have been gone for most of that period. "I know that there has been a serious water shortage.

"I know, too, that Savage River dam has greatly improved the water supply.

Sees Possible Expansion

"I know that we have developed pulping processes and bleaching processes which make our pines and local hardwoods competitive raw materials.

"I know that the management has shown its faith in you through its large investment here since the war. I know that the management wants to make this as successful a mill as any in the industry.

"I know that if we can generate a rate of return on our investment which will justify reinvestment that we can go further in the modernization of this plant—that we can even look forward to expansion.

"We need the interest of everyone. We need the support of the community.

"It is not an easy job, but the opportunity to grow is here."

The mill which Luke will manage was the first unit of the company, which operates in this community six integrated pulp and paper mills and 13 corrugated box factories employing a total of 10,500 persons. The company also owns and operates a pulp and paperboard mill and integrated corrugated box factory in Brazil and has controlling interest in Hinde Anddauch Paper Company, Ltd., a leading producer of corrugated containers in Canada.

Built in 1888 when the original company was formed by William A. Luke and two of his sons, David L. Luke and John Guthrie Luke, the mill was a modest operation, providing work for 60 employees and manufacturing about 9,000 tons of sulphite pulp per year.

Investment of $100,000,000

The Luke mill today represents a gross investment of nearly $30,000,000 and produces annually about 122,000 tons of white paper which is sold to printing and publishing customers throughout the country. The mill now provides jobs for 1,700 men and women, who receive $8,000,000 in wages, salaries and benefits. The mill also pays to local farmers and other woodlot owners about $2,500,000 annually for pulpwood and spends more than $7,000,000 per year for other supplies and materials, much of which is purchased in the Tri-Towns area.

Teacher Says Children Are The Victims In W. Va. Shortage Of Instructors

State Legislature Must Bear Blame

KEYSER—"It is the students who will suffer as a result of this year's school term in Mineral County, because no teacher pay increase was made by the state legislators," according to a prominent local school teacher, who refused to permit use of his name as he now is a teacher in a county class room.

He referred to the fact that the situation, to date, has been handled surprisingly well, but that it is impossible to fill all the instructors' positions. He said it is fortunate that the local county school situation is no worse than it is, but the lack of teachers in one department, that of physical science in two high schools in the county, is hurtful to the students. Transfers, employment of uncertified instructors, and the loss of many experienced teachers will contribute to lower school standards, he believes.

The county school board has been unable, up to this date to supply teachers for physical science in Fort Ashby and Elk Garden high schools. S. T. McGee, superintendent of the county schools, when asked about the matter, said he has contacted many persons and has made every effort to find teachers for these positions. This field is exhausted in this area, and West Virginia has not supplied salaries high enough to bring competent instructors here to fill the two posts.

Another situation discussed by Mr. McGee was the need of a college degree instructor to fill the commercial department of one high school, and he had to compromise, in order to carry on the work in the school, by employing a graduate of the commercial department of Potomac State College, who has had only two years of college work.

In another situation, Patterson Creek School is without a principal. The superintendent thought he had this position filled in the late days of the past week, when a man was hired who has held the position of principal in schools in Hampshire County. The man believed he could be of help in Mineral County, and wanted to come here, and signed a contract, believing he was free to do so.

Late on Thursday, this man Harley R. Myers, Augusta, was accepted and one of the many troubles this year by the new county superintendent, Mr. McGee, was thought to have been cleared. But, on Friday Mr. McGee received word that the Hampshire County School Board had refused to clear Mr. Myers, saying he was under contract there.

The result is that Mineral County needs two physical science teachers in high school work and a principal for an elementary high school.

In the past the board of education has held to employment of men and women school teachers who have degrees for high school instructors, and many in elementary schools also had degrees, but this year saw an exodus of many qualified teachers to other states where the state legislators recognized the importance of employing the best qualified men and women fitted for the work, and provided higher salaries.

This year, school boards have had to resort to employing teachers with or without degrees, and even then has been unable to secure enough to fill the positions in the schools.

Superintendent McGee heaved a sigh of relief, when he was asked if the elementary schools were supplied 100 percent with teachers for the ensuing school year, and he replied, "I have no trouble there as they are supplied and are ready for the work ahead." He said the elementary schools were supplied by qualified teachers for the work, through new personnel, and by transferring some teachers, who have been under contract, so as to provide a well balanced individual school personnel.

Youth Sentenced For 85 Days

A 19-year-old local youth faces 85 days in jail for convictions resulting from an early morning auto ride and fracas in Police Headquarters.

Robert James Nield of near Bowen Street was taken to the County Jail yesterday after being found guilty of two state motor vehicle charges, resisting arrest and disorderly conduct.

He was fined $100.75 or 30 days on one state charge; $51.45 or 30 days for reckless driving, and a total of $25 or 25 days on the resisting arrest and disorderly conduct charges. The magistrate also recommended that his drivers' license be revoked.

Det. Donald Smith testified this morning in City Police Court that he first saw Nield driving on Park Street at a high rate of speed.

The detective said he gave chase and finally caught up with him on Elm Street at 2:45 a. m.

Smith stated that when Nield was being booked, he suddenly hit the detective in the stomach with his elbow. Smith said he had to use force to subdue the youth.

After the hearing on resisting arrest and disorderly conduct, to which he pleaded not guilty and later admitted, Nield was taken to Trial Magistrates Court where he entered guilty pleas to the two motor charges.

Driver Is Fined After Auto Mishap

One of the two drivers involved in an accident Thursday of last week near McCoolle was found guilty in Trial Magistrates Court of violating a state motor vehicle law.

The mishap occurred on Route 220 near the Iu-Rock Drive-In when David Strauss, 47, of Hollywood, Fla., pulled onto the highway into the path of the auto operated by Robert Lee Crossland, 26, of RD 3, Keyser, according to State Trooper J. F. Stakem who investigated.

Strauss was charged with failing to grant the right-of-way, and Crossland with driving at a speed greater than reasonable.

Strauss was found guilty and fined $26.45 while Crossland had the charge against him dismissed. Crossland and the four occupants of his car, Louis Lancaster, 25, RD 3, Keyser; Mrs. Dorothy Lancaster, 25; Benjamin Gordon, 38, Rawlings, and Steven Mayhew, 5, were treated at Sacred Heart Hospital.

Road Repair Work Sought

The session of the Allegany County Board of Commissioners yesterday was routine.

Willis Crock and C. A. Beeman appeared before the board to request that Creek Street in Bow-man's Addition be repaired. They also asked that a drainage pipe be installed to carry off water and the ditches be opened. Crock said he and several neighbors had repaired the road on occasion, but they were unable to do the necessary work without the use of heavy equipment.

The matter was referred to J. Walker Chapman, county roads supervisor.

mac Edison Company offered to furnish a 10.3 cubic foot refrigerator for $328.43 and the Sterling Electric Company offered the same size box for $299.95.

Industrial Comeback Made By Germany

"You see how foolish politics are. You take away all our old machines and replace them with new. We are very satisfied." This statement was made by a supervisor at the giant Krupp works in the Ruhr Valley of Germany.

At the close of the war one-third of the famous Krupp industries had been totally destroyed by Allied bombers. Forty per cent of what remained was dismantled and shipped all over the world. Yet today Krupp industries are in the midst of global competition for markets.

Giant Volkswagen works at Wolfsburg recently turned out their one millionth postwar model. The exporting of 60 per cent of them is causing British manufacturers grave concern.

Steel mills, too, have made an astounding comeback. West German mills produced more than 10 million tons for the first six months of this year. The 1955 total is expected to be about 25 million tons. This compares with 88 million tons for American steel producers last year and an estimated 45 million tons for Russia.

German air industry has been reborn, too. The Lufthansa airline has routes across Europe, to the Middle East, the United States and Latin America. The Messerschmitt and Heinkel airplane factories are being retooled.

There are several plain facts to explain Germany's comeback. The United States alone has furnished more than $4 billion to West Germany in aid and Marshall Plan funds. Brand new machinery and plants give German industry a decided advantage.

Rebirth of German industry is no economic miracle; it was hastened by assistance from ex-foes. The success of Germany's comeback helps to explain the bitter struggle in international diplomacy today for her as an ally.

These Days

By George E. Sokolsky

The Hoover Revolution

Herbert Hoover has had three administrative positions in the Government of the United States: food administrator under Woodrow Wilson; secretary of commerce under Presidents Harding and Coolidge; President of the United States for one term.

In these three positions over a period of 16 years, he familiarized himself with the structure and procedures of administration. In addition, he spent from 1933 to the present day studying intensively problems of administration. Altogether he has been in public life 41 years. In 1947, President Truman turned to him to organize and head a Commission on Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government. The President, the Senate and the House of Representatives each provided a third of the membership of this commission which was non-partisan.

The first Hoover Commission was limited to management problems. Nearly 75 per cent of its recommendations have been adopted in whole or in part.

The second Hoover Commission, appointed by President Eisenhower, also consisting of members provided by the President, the Senate and the House of Representatives, had a wider mandate in the act of Congress bringing it into existence. It was asked to make recommendations eliminating non-essential services and functions and activities which are competitive with private enterprise. It was authorized to make recommendations which would reconsider the value of activities and institutions of government which came into existence during the emergencies of depression and war.

The commission was non-partisan in character, consisting of Herbert Hoover, Herbert Brownell Jr., James A. Farley, Arthur S. Fleming, Senator Styles Bridges, Senator John L. McClellan, Robert G. Storey, Representative Clarence J. Brown, Representative Chet Holifield, Joseph P. Kennedy, Sidney A. Mitchell and Solomon C. Hollister. At no time did the commission divide on a political basis, although there was plenty of division of opinion and dissenting reports.

The principal criticism of the Hoover Commission's recommendations is not that they are not based on accurate data but that in effect they would work a revolution in the sense that they would undo the trends toward socialization which go by the term, the New Deal. (For socialization, they use the term, social welfare.) It has been suggested that what Hoover is trying to do is to liquidate the social revolution of the past 22 years.

On the one hand, the citizens are told that we must reduce taxes, reduce the national debt, balance the budget, and produce efficient government; on the other hand, we are told that no measures taken during the dangerous period of depression or during the expansionist period of war must in any way be changed, limited or abolished. A vested interest has grown up in the purposes and institutions of the depression-war periods.

Hoover takes the position that the depression-war periods and their administrative consequences need to be reviewed and that what is no longer needed, what is duplicative, what interferes with the American economy, what is unnecessarily burdensome upon the American taxpayer should be abolished or at least amalgamated.

This position embarrasses senators, representatives and even the administration who have to face those whose private interests benefit by Government extravagance and inefficiency. On the other hand, some of the recommendations run counter to doctrinaire positions held, with sincerity, by some citizens. So there is a fight in the offing.

Some of those opposed to the Hoover reports assumed that after they were filed with Congress, most of them would be forgotten. After all, these reports and their recommendations go to various congressional committees where they can die in pigeon-holes. But Herbert Hoover, in his 82nd year, is a cagey citizen who knows his way in Washington.

And so a Citizens Committee for the Hoover Reports has been organized nationwide. It goes into every state and into every congressional district to alert those who are sympathetic with its recommendations to fight for them. In many places, some of the recommendations will be rejected; but in others, the Hoover group will develop enough support to produce pressures upon senators and representatives. Republicans and Democrats, who seek re-election. This may be very embarrassing in the 1956 campaign.

Return To 'Ancient Liberties' Advocated For U. S.

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON—A great speech was delivered the other day by the outgoing President of the American Bar Association—Lloyd Wright of Los Angeles. He called for "a new revolution, a bloodless revolution, as in 1776, by the lawyers of the nation, a revolution dedicated, as in 1776, not to establishing any new principles but to restoring the ancient liberties."

The part about "ancient liberties" got some attention, but it was promptly misinterpreted in some places to mean that Mr. Wright was talking about the issue of abstract rights of Communists or Communist sympathizers or persons caught in the dragnet of Communist connections or affiliations. There wasn't a line in the speech that even remotely suggested that this was the basic theme of his approach.

Seathing Denunciation

No one in recent years has made so seathing a denunciation as did Mr. Wright of what the radicals or Socialist liberals—or the "totalitarian liberals," as Herbert Hoover calls them—have done to American liberties. Mr. Wright reminded his hearers that Abraham Lincoln, a lawyer, had said that "you cannot build character and courage by taking away man's initiative and independence" and that "you cannot help men permanently by doing for them what they could and should do for themselves." Mr. Wright added: "For no apparent reason, since the turn of the century, and I believe as a companion to the ex-widening encroachment of an industrial revolution, our people have become restive, and too many of us have turned our backs to the ancient landmarks. We have drifted down the paths of paternalism, looking more and more to security, wherever or however it may be found, and abandoning the good old American traits of thrift, dignity in work, independence and pride of accomplishment, and the joy of succeeding by overcoming all obstacles.

"The pattern of the decline is clear. On every hand our people are aligning themselves into opposing factions and pressure groups based upon economic interests, national origins, religious beliefs and geographical divisions, each organized for the avowed purpose of currying special favor at the hands of government and at the expense of the rest of society.

"The farmer, the labor union, the veteran, and industry and business are seeking protection from the necessity of proving their worth at the market place. Some of our people, and too many of our legislators, have apparently come to believe that every human want and need should be satisfied through the coercive forces of government.

Baering Down On The News

By Arthur "Bugs" Baer

Once again a House committee shook up the box without getting any big berries.

This time it rifled the fellow-travelers in an evasion tournament best two out of three.

The way the Commies were waving it you might think Betsy Ross sewed the stars on the Fifth Amendment.

They also bobbed up with a new caper. The borer-within came up with the First, Sixth, Tenth and Fourteenth Amendments.

That's perstonishing to patriots like Bill Fields and me who never hid behind the Eighteenth.

We know what the Fifth is al-

"Every hyphenated American who puts loyalty to his economic, geographical, religious or political affiliation above his duty and loyalty to the interests of the public at large adds momentum to the drift from the principles upon which our form of government is premised. It matters not what the source of the hyphen may be—the effect upon our future course as a nation is the same.

Effect Is Same

"In recent years these once clear lines of authority between the central and local governments have yielded again and again to the pressure of political expediency, and the federal government exercises greater and greater control over our personal lives. The process is gaining increasing momentum. Too many of our people have ready. The first gives the people the right to assemble but not to smoke in the balcony.

The Sixth gives you a quick quiz in the cool of the evening with a cousin on the jury.

The Tenth is something about the powers not delegated to the government being divided among those present.

The Fourteenth says you cannot take away citizenship papers from any client whose mouthpiece can out-shout the judge.

The House committee was fortunate this time. It escaped with a reprimand.

Efficiency Expert For Government Is One Man Who Can Tell Off Boss

By Tom McNamara

(Editor's Note — While Drew Pearson is on a brief vacation his column is being written by members of his staff.)

WASHINGTON—Does your stenographer powder her nose too often on the job? Garble her shorthand? Is your office upset by frequent quarrels? Don't get excited and start firing people. The chances are you do not need a new stenographer, but a new "methodology."

Methodology is government gobbledeook for human relations between the boss and his help. Take it from Frank A. Petrie, dean of the government's efficiency experts, this is all-important if you want weak production from your personnel.

A man may be an expert in aerodynamics or some other field, but a bust when it comes to passing on his know-how to assistants. As a result his office gets bogged down with indecision and employee dissension. That's where methodology comes in.

That's also where Petrie comes in. For 30 years he has been trouble-shooting efficiency problems in and out of the government, presently as chief of the training division of the Civil Aeronautics administration. Doing a good job, too.

Petrie's system is twofold: (1) better understanding between supervisory officials and those under them, and (2) getting the latter to like their jobs. His work at CAA has been so successful that other federal agencies have copied his technique. Fifty colleges and universities use his ideas as standard reference in their business administration courses.

been willing to barter their precious right to govern themselves for the temporal advantages of financial favor granted by the paternal grace of the benevolent, all-engulfing federal government.

"The demands of our hyphenated Americans for special privileges for one group inevitably brings demands from other groups for equal or countervailing privileges, with the result that another area of human activity is subjected to comprehensive regulation and control.

"It is because we in this country have enjoyed liberties and privileges to a greater extent than any other people in the history of the world that you and I should jealously guard against the erosion of our fundamental rights, the distortion of our laws and fundamental theories of government from whatever source advanced."

Mr. Wright thinks there are "heartening signs that our ancient liberties may yet be preserved and restored." He cites the work of the American Bar Association to further the administration of criminal justice. He lauds the Hoover Commission as setting the course "for preserving due process and the separation of powers" in government.

But the "revolution" which Mr. Wright calls for is in urging citizens to "demand that those who serve us in government do so without favor, as our servants and pursuant to a rule of law." For, he says, the "revolution" is compelled "by a departure from the fundamental principles of individual liberty and local responsibility to which our profession is consecrated."

Mr. Wright's address is the reiteration of a truth seldom heard nowadays. It comes as a breath of fresh air in a fog of so-called "liberalism" with its repeated sacrifice of ideals to the cause of expediency and materialism.

Celebrating Labor Day

By Brother Barnabas

We're off for another three-day holiday, with a Sunday sandwiched in between today and Monday providing an open season for doing whatever one pleases, whether it be to laze, or play, or travel.

Maybe wife will find plenty of work for hubby to do, such as trimming the hedge or mowing the lawn or whitewashing the chicken coop. And all this ado in compliment to Labor.

Sunday doesn't show up well in the scheme. It strikes a new low in popular interest, as evidenced by empty pews and drowsy congregations.

This condition may have something to do with the action of Pope Pius XII in establishing the feast of St. Joseph the Worker-man on May 1, as a better time for expressing the church's concern for the Welfare of Labor. I do not "labor" the issue.

Turn From Summer To Fall

As it is, Labor Day marks the turn from summer to fall activities. Public swimming pools will close and schools open after the holiday. Then taxes must be paid, Red Cross and Welfare subscriptions will be due, and we'll have to pay the fiddler for our vacation excesses.

Pap gaps and wonders where the money went, and where it will come from to pay all bills, with so many shopping days till Christmas.

As a variant to the conventional routine of Labor Day, why not try out the festival idea next year in the interest of family and neighborhood togetherness?

In these days of family disintegration, especially where children are growing up with their diverse interests, one wanting the car, another having a date, and still another wanting to turn on "Howdy Doody," the paterfamilias has a hard time keeping the cherubs in line. The children have a terrible time educating father.

Neighbors too need to cultivate acquaintance and an esprit de corps by getting together now and then on a democratic basis. But what will Mrs. Grundy say?

Memory harks back to various types of home-comings, picnics, outings, family reunions, celebrations. By whatever name, the idea is the same. Normally, the human family is gregarious, not isolationist.

Little Bo Peep lost her sheep, and didn't know where to find them. She came home, and one came home together. Then another came home together, and the last three came home by themselves. "Of how much more value is a man than a sheep?" (Matthew 12:12.)

Activity For All

There is no cut and dried formula, but the agenda provides interest centers for all ages — mu-

Burdick of North Dakota. Rep. Jack Westland, who occasionally plays with President Eisenhower at Burning Tree, was a U. S. amateur golf champion before his election to the House . . . GOP House Leader Joe Martin was a promising semipro baseball catcher. Rev. Bernard Braskamp, the House chaplain, also is an exbaseballer. The chaplain wryly confesses that his most distinctive feat in athletics, before entering the ministry, was when he taught the late neol deval brain truster, Harry Hopkins, how to throw a spitball while they were fellow students at Grinnell College, Iowa.

Pentagon Shavetail

Rep. George Miller of California was an Army lieutenant in World War I. His friend, Miles Kennedy, dapper lobbyist for the American Legion, was a sergeant in World War II. According to Miller, this makes Kennedy the "only guy I outrank in Washington."

When the Legion official calls at Miller's office he is apt to stand stiffly at attention, toss of a salute and announce:

"Sergeant Kennedy reporting, sir."

"At ease, sergeant," Miller will reply, patronizingly. "What's your business?"

"I'm here to lobby you about that veterans hospital bill, sir."

Miller, a member of the Armed Service Committee, recently confided to Kennedy:

"I could be wrong, but I'm almost sure that I saw a second lieutenant at the Pentagon the other day. If this is true—Lord help us!—you are not the only man I outrank in Washington."

Kennedy was amazed to get this intelligence, because everyone knows that the Pentagon is loaded only with high brass that rarely ever descends below the echelon of a major. However, after thinking it over, the Legion official suggested jovially:

"I wouldn't let it worry you, George. That guy is either lost or he'll be a colonel in six months' time."

NOTE—Maybe this is the Pentagon "ghost" Jack Anderson has been trying to track down.

Feeding Of Solid Foods To Babies Is Discussed

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Deilen

Young infants now receive cereals, vegetables, fruits, and meats. Grocery stores usually set aside special sections for baby foods and the industry is becoming big business. This change in feeding habits stemmed from the discovery that infants can digest solid foods more readily than was believed formerly.

When this became known, mother began to demand supplementary feedings because she wanted her tot to compete favorably with the baby next door. She is just as proud of junior's dietary accomplishments as she is of his ability to walk, talk, and cut teeth. As a result, the pendulum has swung in this direction and the physician who does not cater to her wishes in this respect is regarded as old fashioned; occasionally he is fired.

Most children come into the world with an ample supply of vitamins and minerals and progress at a satisfactory rate on milk. The extra demand for vitamins C and D are met by giving them orange juice and cod liver oil.

Milk is low in iron and unless supplementary foods are given by the eighth month, the child will develop anemia. Spinach, egg yolk, meat, and prune pulp are rich in iron and when added to the diet during the fifth or sixth month, help maintain the reserve supply of iron in the liver. Foods of this type furnish the pigment required in the manufacture of red blood cells.

Early feedings also add to a hungry baby's nourishment when it is not desirable to increase the milk intake. Some pediatricians make the limit equivalent to one quart and if the little one still is hungry, supplementary feedings are started. Cereals are excellent for this purpose.

Fruits and green vegetables at the tender age of three months have no particular advantage except to fill the tummy and combat constipation. These early feedings also acquaint the child with a variety of new tastes.

The fact that so many babies like solid foods has led authorities to believe they are needed. This is part of the demand theory in which youngsters select what the body needs. Solids also give a larger choice of proteins and minerals than milk does. On the other hand, physicians have unearthed some disadvantages to the schedule and others believe it does no harm but wonder whether it does any good.

TEMPORARY HOARSENESS

The new maid looked mighty fancy, so Mrs. Jones thought it the better part of wisdom to warn her. "Remember Gwendolyn, you're not to wear jewelry when you serve my guests this evening."

Chicago Raps Tribe Hurlers For 14 Blows

Jack Harshman Hurls 4-Hitter, Including Kiner's Home Run

CLEVELAND, Sept. 2 (AP)—The Chicago White Sox, romping through the offerings of five pitchers with a barrage of 14 hits, maintained their lead in the American League pennant race tonight with an 8-1 victory over the Cleveland Indians in the opener of an important four-game series.

The triumph kept the Sox a half game ahead of the New York Yankees, who beat the Washington Nationals today 4-2, and moved Chicago a full game and a half up on the third place Indians.

Southpaw Jack Harshman went the route for the winners, limiting the Indians to four well-scattered hits. The sole run scored off him was at the hands of Ralph Kiner, who led off the sixth inning with his 16th homer of the season.

Minnie Minoza was the outstanding figure in the Chicago offense. His single started a three-run spurge for the Sox in the fourth inning. He singled in a run in the fifth to put Chicago ahead 4-0 and slammed a two-run homer, his ninth, in the seventh in which the Sox scored four runs.

Sal Maglie, 37-year-old right-hander purchased last month from the New York Giants, started the parade of five Cleveland pitchers who faced the onslaught.

Maglie was chased in the fourth as the Sox got five straight hits, including four singles and Bob Kennedy's double to take a 3-0 lead.

Trabert Wins Opening Match

Aussies Also Score In National Tests

By WILL GRIMSLEY
FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 2 (AP)—Top-seeded Tony Trabert opened his bid for the national tennis championship today with a quick victory over England's young Roger Becker.

The Wimbledon champion crushed the 21-year-old British Davis Cup ace 6-0, 6-4, 6-1.
Doris Hart of Coral Gables, Fla., defending women's champion, and several seeded players in both men's and women's divisions won lack-luster matches but the day's attention was riveted on the injury-plagued U. S. star.

Trabert made only three errors in sweeping through the first set without loss of a game in 12 minutes. He made only 22 errors during the entire match.

Miss Hart, favored to repeat in the women's division, had an equally easy time with Ruth Jeffery of Melrose, Mass., winning 6-2, 6-0.

Two members of Australia's successful Davis Cup team came through with a minimum of trouble. Rex Hartwig, seeded fourth, felled Nadin Hajar of Lebanon, 6-1, 6-3. Neale Fraser felled Calvin MacCracken of Tenafly, N. J., 6-3, 6-3, 3-6, 6-2.

Gardner Mulloy, now of Denver, defeated Edgar Neely of Atlanta, 6-3, 6-1, 6-3. Tom Brown of San Francisco whipped William Demas of Oakland, Calif., 6-4, 11-9, 6-0.

LaVale Maroons Beat Ellerslie, Capture Crown

Rickey Shaffer Wins Deciding Game, 11-1

LaVale's Maroons became the first team in the five-year history of the Pen-Mar League to win both the pennant and playoffs when they took the measure of Ellerslie on the latter's field yesterday in the third and deciding game of their series by the score of 11-1.

Rickey Shaffer, who had pitched only one inning during the regular season, was pressed into the service and he turned in a two-hit performance, fanned five and issued only two bases on balls. LaVale entered the game with its regular pitchers ineligible due to the limitation on innings set for each hurler and Shaffer came through in the clutch.

The Maroons garnered nine hits, three of which were credited to Bill Wanless. Mickey Scaletta panned a double and single and Dave Fulk blasted a triple. Singles by Wisler and Parry in the second inning were all that Ellerslie could garner off Shaffer.

LaVale, managed by Ted Femic, closed the season with a record of 22 wins and three losses. The Maroons earned one trophy for winning the pennant with an 18-1 record and annex the other by defeating the Cresapton Black Sox and Ellerslie in best-of-three play-off series.

The Out Man

FORT WORTH, Tex. — Homer Peel, former big league outfielder, thinks he holds at least one record in baseball that isn't likely ever to be broken or tied.

Peel made the most outs of any player in three times at bat.

It happened like this, said Peel in Fort Worth for a reunion of former Fort Worth Texas League players:

"I hit into a triple play and two double plays. That made seven outs by one batter in three times up."

Optimists Beat Kiwanis, 6-3, Retain Hot Stove Loop Title

Jim Page Decisions Frisby In "Rubber" Contest Of Series

Bunching all its runs in the first and fifth innings, the Optimist Club won the third and deciding game from the Kiwanis Club last night at Penn Avenue Field to bag the Hot Stove Baseball League title for the second straight year. The score was 6-3.

Thus, the Optimists, who finished the regular season in second place after a series of playoff games, and eliminated B'nai B'rith, two games to one in the semi-final playoffs, successfully defended the championship they won last year. In 1954 the Optimists finished the regular campaign in fourth place.

The Kiwanians concluded their regular schedule with a 14-0 record, knocked B'nai B'rith out of the running in two straight, dropped the opener to the Optimists (12-10) after winning 16 in a row and evened up the final series by taking the second contest, 13-4.

Each team collected six hits in last night's "rubber" game in which James "Doug" Page was returned the winner over Gary Frisby. Page whiffed nine and gave up two bases on balls while Frisby struck out 11 and issued three walks.

Rich Marriott and Page shared four of the winning team's hits while Gary Butts smacked a first inning homer and Richard McDonald rapped a double and single for Kiwanis.

A sparkling stop by Glenn Davis on Ronnie Long's drive to right field and brilliant fielding by second sacker Rich Marriott and third baseman Wayne Shook highlighted the play of the Optimists. Gene Willetts starred afield for the losers. The Kiwanians were charged with six fielding miscues. Score: Optimists 6, Kiwanis 3.

Smalley's Pinch Hit Defeats Giants, 5-3

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2 (AP)—Roy Smalley's pinch hit double drove home two runs in the eighth inning to break a 3-3 tie and give the Philadelphia Phillies a 5-3 victory over the New York Giants to night in the battle for third place in the National League.

Trailing 3-1 as they came to bat in the last of the eighth, the Phillies socked Windy McCall for three doubles and a triple to give Robin Roberts his 22nd victory of the season against 10 defeats. The victory gave the third-place Phillies a two-game bulge over the fourth-place Giants. The two teams met here again tomorrow night and Sunday.

After Granny Hamner flied out to open the Phillies eighth, Del Ennis doubled for his third hit of the night. Stan Lopata tripled scoring Ennis. Jim Greengrass, who hit his 10th homer in the second, doubled to right to score Lopata.

Andy Seminick was passed intentionally to get at Roberts, but Manager Mayo Smith sent Smalley in to bat for his star right-hander. Smalley delivered with a long double off the right field wall that scored Greengrass and the slow Seminick from first base.

Smart Rabbits

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Pennsylvania's rabbits are getting wired, the state game commission reports.

Hunters pestering the commission to find out why the rabbits they see in the summer aren't around to be shot in the fall hunting season are told:

"The answer lies partially in the fact the cottontail is becoming more nocturnal in its habits and often stays in its burrow during the daylight hours."

Hunting is not allowed in this state after dark.

By C. V. BURNS

JUMBO JIM HEISE, of Scottsdale, Pa., who posted three straight wins for Grantsville's pennant winning team toward the close of the Pen-Mar League season, was the nation's strikeout king in college baseball last spring.

Heise accounted for ten of West Virginia University's 20 victories and that's an all-time high at the Morgantown school.

Jim is helping Homer Fizer with the coaching chores at University High School these days. The Hilltoppers, who appear on the Parsons and Romney schedules this season, are installing the Split-T for the 1955 campaign.

LEFTY DON O'HAVER, another product of W.V.U., paced the Pen-Mar pitchers for the 1955 season with a 7-0 record while twirling for Grantsville.

He beat Wellersburg 4-3 and 11-10, Eckhart 19-2 and 18-2, Barreville 9-8, Hyndman 4-0 and Flintstone 9-1.

ADD NEW STUNTS at night ball games:

The Cincinnati Redlegs August 20 game included a bowling alley exhibition by Andy Varipapa. An alley was set up from home plate to third base.

Which reminds us of the time Cumberland and Ridgeley youths planned to put on a hand-walking contest at Community Park before a Cumberland Colts' baseball game got under way.

When President James K. Ford learned of the stunt he dashed out of the grandstand like the place was on fire and stopped the show.

Ford said he would not tolerate any nonsense like that. "These people came here to see a baseball game, not a circus," he told the performers.

FRONT ROYAL'S Warren County Wildcats with Paul Flick as their new coach have lined up what they believe is the toughest football schedule in the school's history.

The Virginians meet Martinsburg, Hagerstown and Fort Hill in addition to six opponents from the Cavalier State, namely, Handley, Luray, Harrisonburg, Clarke County, James Wood High of Winchester, and Manchester.

Front Royal hosts Fort Hill in October.

AL HERMAN, Allentown, Pa., auto racer who finished second in the 20-lap race at the Bedford Fair Grounds on Sunday, August 21, is in a critical condition in a Milwaukee hospital from burns suffered Sunday in an accident at Milwaukee's State Fair Park.

Herman was strapped in his machine when the exhaust ignited gasoline fumes and his car, which was being refueled, burst into flames. He managed to free himself when flames flared up and leaped from the car, his clothing afire.

Frank Curtis, New York mechanic, and Floyd Duvall, Indianapolis, driver, ran after Herman, threw him to the ground and beat out the flames. Curtis, Duvall and Walter L. Barker, pit attendant, also are hospitalized after being badly burned.

SPONSORS of sandlot leagues in the Pittsburgh area will make efforts next season to abandon Shaughnessy playoffs.

A spokesman for the leagues put it this way:

"It's nothing but an attempt to make amends financially through extra playoffs before engaging in a title series.

"There is no sense to it and it is terribly confusing to the fans as well as for public relations of the leagues."

The Shaughnessy playoffs date back to the depression days and were inaugurated by the minor leagues in an effort to aid the financially embarrassed clubs.

GENE HUMMEL becomes head football coach at Frederick High School this year after serving as line coach for five seasons. Dave Barr, Henry Groff and Jim Fraser are his aides.

Appointment of Robert M. Hainsfurther as manager for Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company's $34,000,000 plate glass plant currently under construction here has been announced by Ralph V. Reising, general manager of plate glass production of the firm.

Prior to his appointment, Hainsfurther had served as assistant manager of Pittsburgh Plate's large plate glass manufacturing plant at Creighton, Pa., for the past six years. He has been associated with Pittsburgh Plate since 1930 when he joined the Creighton plant as a trainee.

Hainsfurther served in various manufacturing departments, including that of supervisor of bending and tempering operations during World War II. In 1944, he was appointed assistant superintendent, tank department at Creighton.

Is Civic Leader

Hainsfurther's appointment is the first managerial appointment to be announced by the company. He will remain at the Creighton works and the firm's Pittsburgh offices for an indefinite period pending the completion of the local ultra-modern plant.

The new Cumberland plant man-

ager will continue residing at Natrona Heights, Pa., with his wife, Bess, and family. He is the father of two—Vickey, who is enrolled at Greenbrier Junior College for Women, Lewisburg, W. Va., and Richard, a metallurgical senior at Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y.

An active participant in Creighton's civic affairs, Hainsfurther is president of the Harrison Township School Board and past president of Har-Brack Joint School Board. He was elected school director in 1951, and his term will expire in 1957. Hainsfurther also is president of the Heights Riverview Parents-Teachers Association. He has also participated as a leader in the YMCA and fund-raising programs.

Hainsfurther is a former president of the Foremen's Club of Allegany Valley, serving in 1947 and 1948, and of the Tarentum Lions Club in 1948. He also is a member of the American Ceramic Society.

To Maintain Contact

A native of Winchester, Ill., Hainsfurther was graduated from the University of Illinois with a bachelor of science degree in ceramic engineering.

Although Hainsfurther will remain at Creighton for an indefinite time, he plans to keep in close contact with the Cumberland plant until its partial completion next year. Pittsburgh Plate officials estimate the local multi-million plant will be in partial production by July of 1956 and full production by the end of next year.

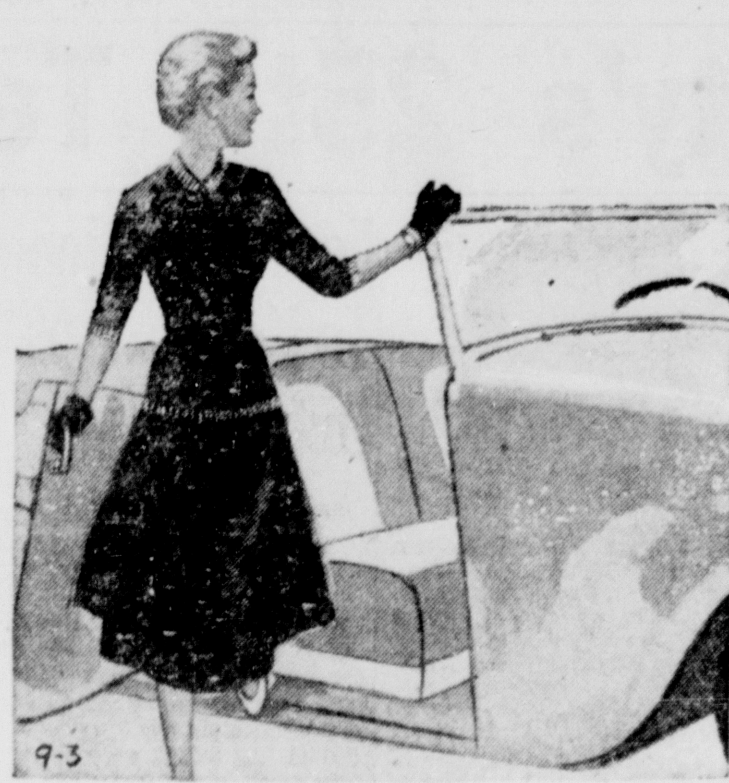

During the past week, workmen began pouring cement for the plant's foundation. Two and one-half miles of railroad track have been laid to the site and three more miles are slated to be laid before completion. Designed for straight-line production of plate glass, the plant will be three-quarters of a mile long. When completed, it will feature manufacturing improvements superior to anything in the plate glass manufacturing world.

A total of 2,500 men will be required in the job of constructing the plant before it is completed.

Secrets Of Charm

by John Robert Powers

Politeness should make heads together as possible. With action turn the other way when some women get in or out of a car, their awkwardness is almost embarrassing.

Awkwardness is certainly unnecessary. It's much easier to perform these actions gracefully than it is to describe how they should be done. If you have the slightest suspicion that you aren't the picture of poise and grace as you enter or leave a car door, practice these procedures in the privacy of your garage.

To enter a car gracefully, face the front of the car, so that one side of you is turned toward the door. Maintain this squarely side-long position, without once twisting your hips or shoulders even slightly.

Now, set the foot nearest the door six inches inside the car flat on the floor and pointing straight ahead. Then take two swift and easy movements as close

To disembark gracefully, slide sideways to the end of the seat and reach out with the foot nearest the door until it touches the ground. This is easy, but the next act takes practice. This time with action springing from the foot in the car, and with head and shoulders leading, lift yourself up and out and set the second foot on the ground. Straightening up quickly to align your trunk perfectly with your feet finishes the performance with aplomb. Never, never try to stand up in a car and plunge out head first.

Monday—An exciting turning point.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for their kindness and expressions of sympathy shown us at the death of Frederick J. Tichnell. Especially do we wish to thank Rev. Robert Cassell, Rev. Rex Coffman, the choir of Mt. Calvary Church and the three girls from the Pentecostal Holiness Church who sang with them, members of Victory Post and Hiram Lodge, the bugler at the funeral service, those who sent cards, food, floral offerings, donated the use of their cars or helped in any way.

WIFE, FATHER, MOTHER, BROTHER and FAMILY

We wish to express our sincere appreciation for the many kindnesses shown us during our recent bereavement, the death of our beloved father, Peter Broadwater. We especially wish to thank those who sent flowers, the pallbearers, donated cars or assisted in any manner.

Sadly missed by "Butch".

In Memoriam

In memory of Jack Billard who passed away 3 years ago today, Sept. 3, 1952. Always so true, unselfish and kind. Few in this world his equal you'll find. A beautiful life that came to an end. He died as he lived, everyone's friend. Beautiful memories of a smiling face. A broken link no one can replace. Whatever else I fail to do, I'll never fail to think of you. Sadly missed by "Butch".

Health Workers Wait Go Ahead On Polio Shots

Inoculations Will Be Given In Schools

Plans are being prepared by the Allegany County Health Department for completing the polio vaccination program among the first and second graders this fall and next spring.

Dr. Winter R. Frantz, county health officer, said the plan will be set in motion as soon as word is received that supplies of vaccine are available.

He said the shots will be given in the schools by Health Department personnel, following procedures set up by the State Board of Health.

This spring, the Health Department, with volunteer assistance by physicians and health groups, gave first shots of Salk vaccine to 3,615 children in the first and second grades.

Expect Adequate Supply

The work was done in special centers set up in the Health Department offices and in centrally located schools in order to complete the program before school let out for the summer.

Dr. Frantz said the time element will not be as critical this school year, since supplies of vaccine are expected to be delivered when needed.

This will allow the department to schedule the shots in the schools according to a planned program and without transportation problems.

It is likely that the second shots will be given beginning late this fall and the final shots beginning next March or April.

When the first phase of the work was completed April 26, the Health Department expected to start second shots on May 17 and complete that phase before schools closed.

To Get DPT Shots

The work was deferred, however, after supplies of vaccine were recalled for further testing.

Officials termed the opening of the program here "very successful" after paying tribute to all of those who pitched in to make the historic health program tick.

The addition of the polio vaccine program will add up to the biggest inoculation year in the department's history.

First graders, Dr. Frantz added, will also get two DPT shots—for diphtheria, pertussis, (whooping cough) and tetanus.

School Bus Schedule For LaVale Announced

A plan to transport school children to Cresaptown Junior High, the new Parkside Elementary (LaVale), and LaVale School has been worked out by Arthur G. Ramey, supervisor of transportation for Allegany County schools, and Homer S. Higgins, supervisor of pupil personnel.

Should the situation become changed after the actual opening of the school term on Tuesday, changes can and will be made, according to Ramey.

The schedule for pupils in grades 7-8-9 living on Braddock Road, Vocke Road at or near Red Hill on Route 40 is as follows:

Onto Vocke Road

Bus 121 will head from Cresaptown in the morning, turn in onto Vocke Road to pick up junior high pupils, thence on Braddock Road to a point near the Elda building where it will turn around.

The bus will then proceed to the foot of Red Hill, and returning will travel Winchester Road into Cresaptown. All along this route, Ramey pointed out, only junior high pupils will be taken on board. Estimated starting time will be 8 a. m. or 8:10 a. m.

Those pupils attending Parkside Elementary School in LaVale will ride on the following schedule:

A. Pupils in elementary grades 1-6, who live on Braddock Road, will be picked up by Bus 28 driven by Carl Geary as it travels out of Cumberland westward. Elementary grade pupils who formerly attended Cresaptown Elementary school will board this bus. It is expected that the bus will be completely loaded when, or before, it reaches Route 40 at Allegany Grove. Estimated time of the first pick up along Braddock Road will be about 8:20 a. m. or 8:30 a. m.

B. A second bus, driven by Charles Hammersmith, will be waiting at Allegany Grove to follow the bus mentioned above to transport pupils to Parkside School. It will pick up all elementary pupils along Route 40 from the Grove to the Parkside Boulevard, the street that leads to the Parkside School. The estimated starting time for the bus from Allegany Grove will be about 8:30 a. m. or 8:35 a. m.

C Third Bus

A. A third bus for Parkside School, driven by Paul Sibley, will start picking up pupils at the intersection of LaVale Street and Route 40, proceeding westward to provide transportation service for the pupils along both sides of Route 40, also from LaVale Terrace and from LaVale Street, both sides of this street, and also both to the north and also to the south of Route 40. The estimated starting time for the first pickup will be about 8:20 a. m. or 8:35 a. m.

D. Garden City and Winchester Road to Parkside School. Bus 121, coming out of Cresaptown, will pick up elementary grade pupils, grades 1-6, starting in Garden City, in the area around Mayfair, and along Winchester Road for Parkside School. It is estimated that this bus will be well loaded by the time it reaches Winchester Bridge. It will then proceed without stop to the school. The estimated starting time at Garden City will be 8 or 8:10 a. m.

This bus will then make a second trip to transport pupils to Parkside School, after discharging its first load. On this second trip, the bus will head westward on Route 40, picking up elementary grade pupils in the vicinity of Crystal Park and continue on westward to the foot of Red Hill for other elementary grade pupils. It will turn at the foot of Red Hill, and then proceed back toward the school, going out Winchester Road from the Six Mile House to Vocke Road, at which point it will turn on to Vocke Road and make pick ups for Parkside School. The estimated time for pick ups near Crystal Park will be 8:30 a. m.

E. Pupils who live along Parkside Boulevard, or who live on the far northern section of LaVale Boulevard will be expected to walk to the new school. Those who live on LaVale Boulevard have an unimproved alley, called Suburban Drive (or some such name) over which to walk a distance of a short city block to the school building.

Pupils to the LaVale School — The only change in the transportation service to the LaVale School will involve one bus. The bus which originally started at Woodlawn will now start at LaVale Street and pick up pupils as it travels eastward along Route 40. This will provide transportation service for those pupils living in the area eastward from LaVale Street, on both sides of Route 40 and the side streets.

The other busses which have serviced LaVale School in the past from Cash Valley, Mt. Savage Road, Homewood, and intermediate areas will operate as in the past.

Any and/or all of the above enumerated routes may be changed if the situations as they develop after the opening of school warrant such action.

River Basin Group To Air "Diane" Damage

Meeting Slated In Hagerstown

The floods of the recent Hurricane Diane will make their influence felt on the fall meeting of the Interstate Commission on the Potomac River Basin to be held in Hagerstown, on September 12 and 13.

Convening at the Hotel Alexander on the morning of September 12 to consider the many phases of watershed management, the commission expects to find that proposals for flood control projects, including future storage dams at strategic points along the Potomac River, will play a major part in their deliberations.

This development comes on the heels of the Army Engineers' new plan for a flood control study of the corps' proposed survey seeking safeguards against future hurricane high-water devastation.

Congressman DeWitt Hyde of Maryland's Sixth District, who will speak at the commission meeting, is expected to advocate the building of more dams such as the upper Potomac's, Savage River Dam for the triple purpose of controlling floods, insuring adequate water supplies for growing industrial, agricultural and municipal uses, and for augmenting the flow of the Potomac during droughts to insure proper dilution of industrial and sanitary wastes.

Other highlights of the meeting, following a keynote address by George F. Hazelwood, this city, chairman of the Interstate Commission on the Potomac River Basin, will be addresses by Dr. Maurice Goddard, Pennsylvania's Secretary of the Department of Forests and Waters; Kermit McKeever, West Virginia's Assistant Director of Conservation; J. J. Shoman, Virginia Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries; and Dr. Gordon M. Cairns, Maryland University's Dean of Agriculture.

Joseph F. Kaylor, Maryland's Director of Forests and Parks is arranging for the participation of local farm bureaus, county agents, granges, district foresters and soil conservationists. Edward S. Davis, Maryland State Conservationist will conduct field trips to demonstration areas in soil conservation, forestry, and wildlife management in the Piney Plains Valley.

Sheesley said that the tent is located along Oldtown Road, one mile east of Maryland Avenue. The services tomorrow and next Sunday will be held at the church with worship at 9:45 a. m. and Sunday School 10:45 a. m. Services at the tent are at 2:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. with week night services at 8 p. m. All former pastors, members and friends are invited to attend.

Hospital Bids Due Sept. 9

Bids on a construction of much interest to the residents of Western Maryland will be opened at 2 p. m. Friday, September 9, by the State Department of Public Improvements in Baltimore.

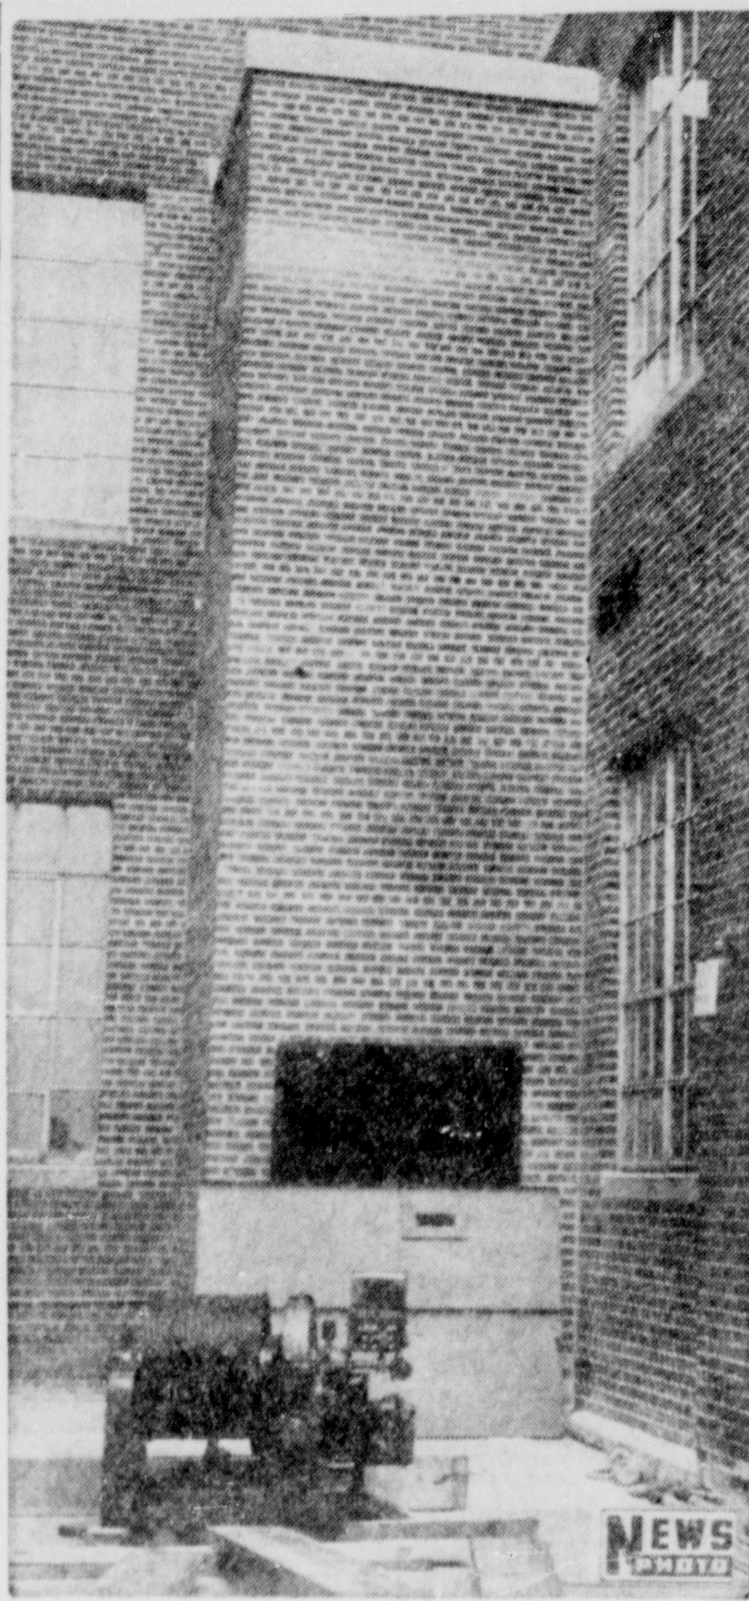

The bids are for the new 300-bed Western Maryland Chronic Disease Hospital to be located on the northern edge of Hagerstown.

Expected to cost approximately $2,800,000, the facility will be a complete new institution of fire resistant reinforced concrete construction with brick exterior. Connected by a three-story center section, there will be four wings ranging from one to four stories. It is anticipated that a staff of approximately 200 will be required to operate the hospital upon completion.

Allegany County officials have said for some time that construction of the new hospital will relieve some of the pressure for rooms in the county infirmary, which is always filled. Some local patients will be sent to Hagerstown for care.

Church Schedules Talent Show

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints will conduct a talent show at 7 p. m. Saturday at Central YMCA, according to Elder Arthur McKinley, branch president.

The elevator will be utilized in hauling food from the ground level to the cafeteria located on the second floor and in bringing ashes up from the basement to the ground level for disposal. Previously, the food was carried to the second floor on an obsolete dumb waiter and the ashes had to be removed by hand.

The subject has been referred to the bank's management to the office of United States Attorney George C. Doub, Baltimore, to the district chief national bank examiner, Richmond, Va., and to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, authorities generally delegated to conduct investigations in the national banking system.

"The First National Bank is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the public will be interested to know that in addition to deposit insurance a substantial banker's blanket fidelity bond covering all staff members is carried, assuring that neither the bank nor its customers will suffer any loss," A. W. Tindal, president, said.

W. Va. Vets Confused About Bonus

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., Sept. 2 (P-T. H. (Pat) McGovran told West Virginia Legionnaires today that extending the deadline for paying West Virginia's veterans' bonus has caused some confusion among veterans.

"For some reason," said the director of the Veterans Affairs Department, "a number of persons have thought that the extension of the right to file was an opening to reconsider action of the bonus applications previously denied, and have requested that their earlier applications be reconsidered."

McGovran made it clear that details will be reconsidered only where "an obvious error was involved" in the original application, and said submission of new evidence can have no effect on the original denial.

Since the 1955 Legislature extended the filing deadline to December 31 of this year, McGovran said, about 600 new claims have been filed. Fewer than 80 are on file and unpaid.

McGovran's remarks were prepared for delivery at the 37th annual convention of the American Legion's West Virginia Department. The meeting opened today and continues through Monday afternoon.

Legion officials estimated that 3,000 to 4,000 members from 150 posts across the state are attending the convention.

The cost of the paint job will come out of the library funds, Miss Walsh added. The library will be closed today, tomorrow and Monday.

14 New Polio Cases Reported

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Sept. 2 (P-T) Fourteen new cases of polio, including two affecting children who had received anti-polio vaccine, were reported to the State Health Department in the past week.

The new cases reported by State Health Director N. H. Dyer today brought West Virginia's total number of cases so far this year to 38, compared with 155 cases for the corresponding period of 1954. There now have been 13 cases among the 104,000 first and second grade children who received Salk vaccine in the free clinic program in West Virginia this year. Of the 13 affected children, 10 had received only one inoculation and three had received both shots.

Washington's Cabin To Be Opened For Historic Tour

Hostesses for the Washington's Headquarters phase of the Bicentennial tour of historic homes and buildings in the Cumberland area were announced yesterday by Cresap Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

Greeting those who visit Col. Washington's military headquarters on the September 10 tour will be Mrs. John M. Robb, regent; Mrs. Marguerite Findlay, immediate past regent; Mrs. E. R. Kellogg and Mrs. Walter Pierce.

Among the treasures found in the headquarters will be the original key to the cabin, Martha Washington's candle snuffers, Mrs. Thomas Cresap's nightcap and the first official seal of the City of Cumberland.

A number of Indian exhibits, including peace pipes and several tomahawk heads, an old iron fluter and cooking utensils and ice skates, found in the cabin when it was restored, will be seen by the visitors.

Mrs. Robb reported yesterday that 1,873 persons, mostly visitors, inspected the headquarters during the Bicentennial pageant week.

Among the visitors were persons from as far away as Capetown, Africa, Paris, France and the Canal Zone.

The cabin is opened to the public each year on Washington's birthday and on April 21, the anniversary of its presentation to the City of Cumberland.

In addition to these regularly scheduled days, the landmark is available, upon request, throughout the year, to organized groups and individuals.

Crash Probe To Continue

State's Attorney Paul M. Fletcher said yesterday the survivor of a two-car collision which resulted in the death of Charles A. Keech, 35, manager of Keech's Pharmacy, and his 11-year-old son, Charles A. Keech Jr., will be questioned Tuesday if he is released from the hospital.

He said Lundy Thomas Kinser, 54, of Route 1, Oldtown, was admitted to Memorial Hospital Wednesday night for treatment of chest injuries and was expected to be released the following day. He was still hospitalized yesterday, but officials believe he will be out by Tuesday.

One other person is scheduled to be questioned, according to Edwin R. Lilia, county investigator.

Fletcher said investigation by the Jack Browning showed the double fatality occurred Wednesday at 7:55 p. m.—about dusk—approximately 8-10 of one mile west of Oldtown on a straight-of-way on Route 51.

The car Keech was driving was traveling east toward Oldtown. Kinser, traveling west, intended to enter a gas station on the south side of the road and made a left turn into the service station.

He said the trooper reported Kinser either did not see the sports car approaching from his right or did not correctly estimate its rate of speed, and collided practically head-on as he began to turn.

1,121 Register For Surplus Foods

Traffic Deaths Already Exceed Total For 1954

Safe Labor Day Driving Is Urged

As motorists in the area head for the highways over the long Labor Day holiday weekend, State Police offered a grim warning that more persons have been killed in traffic accidents in Allegany and Garrett counties in the first eight months this year than died in accidents through the entire year of 1954.

The deaths Wednesday night on Oldtown Road of Charles A. Keech, 35-year-old manager of Keech's Pharmacy at 602 Virginia Avenue, and his 11-year-old son, Charles A. Keech Jr., brought to 16 the number killed in the two Western Maryland counties.

15 Last Year

During 1954 there were 15 persons killed in traffic accidents in the two counties—11 in Allegany and four in Garrett. This year, with the addition of five killed in August alone, there have been nine Allegany fatalities and seven in Garrett County.

Because of the large number of accidents anticipated over the last long Summer holiday, there is a chance that death may mark the holiday of others in the area.

Every State Police officer available will be on duty in an effort to curb these unnecessary deaths and property destruction. But it is up to the man in the driver's seat to do his part in keeping down the high number of fatalities.

This can be accomplished with precautions and a little common sense. A few of the rules to observe include: observance of traffic regulations; keeping a safe distance between yourself and the car ahead, especially at higher speeds.

Stay In Lane

Staying in your own lane on hills, curves, and in "no passing" zones; while driving at night, dim your lights to oncoming traffic.

The right of way may rightfully belong to you, but if a pedestrian comes along, give it to him but that doesn't mean "let him have it."

Watch where you are going, and where the cars behind, ahead and on both sides are traveling. Regulate speed to road conditions, rather than posted speed limits.

Music Teachers Meet Tuesday

Instrumental music teachers of Allegany County will meet on Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. in the Board of Education building, according to W. Valgene Routh, supervisor of music education.

The purpose of the meeting, Routh added, is to formulate plans for the County Band and Orchestra Festival which will be held in March of next year.

The place where the festival will be held will be decided at the meeting. Also scheduled for discussion will be an organization for interesting new talent for instrumental lessons in the elementary schools.

High school vocal music teachers will meet on Wednesday at 1:30 p. m. at the Board of Education building. The final selection of the music program for the all county high school chorus festival to be held during the last week of April at Allegany High School will be made according to Routh.

The guest conductor recently selected by a committee of teachers will be Miss Mary Muldowney, professor of music education at New York University.
